

THE VILLAGES AT SPRINGBROOK FARMS

Please see an upcoming email providing more information regarding upcoming projects.

Hello April! We are so happy to see flowers blooming and neighbors outside taking advantage of the warmer weather!

IMPORTANT Dates:

Please mark your calendars for the upcoming neighborhood yard sale on May 4th!

The week following the yard sale, we hope to have a dumpster for everyone to use. We will send dates once they are confirmed.

Below, we wanted to provide contact information for our new management company, D'Angelo Realty Group. Please reach out to them with any questions and/or concerns.

HOA Committees

As mentioned in previous emails and newsletters, the HOA board is looking for volunteers for our neighborhood committee's. Committee's are so important to keeping our community looking great and feeling like home! Committees are a great way to be involved in the neighborhood without having to be a member of the HOA board. If you are interested in any of the committees listed below, please reach out to us! The spring is a very active time for projects in our neighborhood. Any volunteer help would be wonderful! We would LOVE to have you!
